

OVERDOSE AWARENESS DAY

An estimated minimum of 190,900 deaths world wide were due to overdose in 2016.

More than 63,000 Americans died from drug overdose in 2016.

In the United States over 42,000 overdose deaths in 2016 involved opioids.

Learn What to Look For

Knowing the common signs of an overdose can help you save a life.

How to Help

If you see signs of an overdose, call an ambulance immediately.

Preventing Overdose

Learn to take medications safely to insure that you avoid overdosing.

Understanding how prevalent overdose deaths are, it's important to know the signs to watch for, what to do when you spot them, and – most importantly – how to prevent them in order to help save lives.